S	11	Psalm 72	In China and India revolutionary psychologies are promoting conflicts that have no hope of reconciliation in them apart from God. In Japan a great "spiritual vacuum" remains after the collapse of state worship. In the Near East a Moslem mentality predominates. In Central and South America there is a new awareness of the value of a personal evangelical faith. Africa is a great continent rapidly awakening and seeking new material and spiritual freedoms.

S	18	Psalm 27	Moral and spiritual issues are hanging in the balance today. The old world of former days is gone in all of Asia. Racial and nationalistic motives are growing rapidly. The struggle for education and the desire for industrialization are without precedent. As never before, the need for spiritual foundations to undergird the new and changing forms of life confront the Church throughout the world. There is an urgency altogether ominous in today's task. M	26	Luke 7:11-17	God is revealing His order of righteousness through the disorder of our times. The contrast between His order and man's disorder may well both frighten and instruct us. It is Christ who subdues our fears, and teaches us our duties which are not provincial. They are universal. Each Christian bears the responsibility of the universality of his faith. 5]		Sexagesima Sunday		2 Cor. 11:19-12:9 Phil. 1:2-21 Luke 8:4-15 John 11:20-27
S	1	Psalm 71	Stewardship is a perennial emphasis in every church alert to its God-given commission. It is relatively easy to add names of new members to the roll if they know little is demanded of them. Stress chiefly the material benefits possible, security and other free benefits; people motivated by the acquisitive urge will come. Unless impressed with the cost of discipleship, many such accessions permanently remain names only.

7]		The First Sunday in Lent (Invocavit)		2 Cor. 6:1-10 Hebrews 4:15,16 Matthew 4:1-11 Matthew 16:21-26
S	15	Psalm 62	One of the chief weaknesses of many churches is their failure to assimilate their members, to put them to work, to impress on them the grave responsibility which follows the blessings of fellowship in the Body of Christ. They are permitted to remain "babes in Christ" all of their days. They have no desire to grow up to the full stature of Christ. They enjoy ease and coddling. On the slightest provocation they are hurt.

S	22	Psalm 32	The task of Stewardship is to take the "born again" souls, the fruit of a zealous Evangelism, and train them in the use of their time, talents, possessions—yes, all of life—in the faithful service of the Lord Jesus Christ. Gratitude for His redeeming sacrifice is their soul motivation; the desire to do God's will their only aim. Happy in the service of the King, they are seldom included among the throng of erasures.

31 Days

Days		DAILY BIBLE LESSON	DENOMINATIONAL EMPHASIS  March: Evangelism "If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me."
Week	Month
M	1	Mark 9:33-50	The urgency of an evangelistic impact and outreach on the part of the church is apparent to everyone who has a deep concern for mankind's temporal and eternal well-being. The moral and spiritual sag of our day can be arrested, and men and nations turned toward a more abundant life only as they are brought to a new awareness of the presence and power of God and a knowledge of his saving grace in Christ.
T	2	Luke 9:51-56
W	3	Luke 10:1-16
T	4	Luke 10:25-37
F	5	Luke 10:38-42
S	6	Luke 11:1-13
10] The Fourth Sunday in Lent (Laetare)			Romans 5:1-11    2 Cor. 7:4-10 John 6:1-15    John 6:47-57
S	7	Psalms 116	The duty devolves upon the church to unceasingly proclaim the "good news" of God's redeeming purpose and to make converts for Christ. With few exceptions the witness of the church has been weak and its outreach meager. One of the reasons for our halting evangelistic advance is that we have lost the art of New Testament evangelism, the spirit and method of the personal interview. We have not shared our evangelical experience with others.
M	8	Luke 11:37-54
T	9	Luke 12:1-12
W	10	Luke 12:13-21
T	11	Luke 12:22-31
F	12	Luke 12:32-48
S	13	Luke 12:49-59
11] The Fifth Sunday in Lent Passion Sunday (Judica)			Hebrews 9:11-15    1 Peter 1:17-25 John 8:46-59    John 13:31-35
S	14	Psalms 43	In the early apostolic church every Christian was a personal evangelist, a fisher of men, a witness for Christ. So meaningful and vital was his spiritual experience that he could not contain himself. He felt constrained to bear witness of his faith in the presence of others and his life enforced the testimony of his lips. As a result of this lay movement, empowered by the Holy Spirit, the Christian forces rapidly increased in number, influence, and conquering power.
M	15	Luke 13:1-9
T	16	Luke 13:10-21
W	17	Luke 13:22-35
T	18	Luke 14:1-24
F	19	Luke 14:25-35
S	20	Luke 10:17-24
12] The Sixth Sunday in Lent Palm Sunday (Palmarum)			Mat. 2:5-11    Hebrews 12:1-6 Matthew 21:1-9    John 12:1-8
S	21	Psalms 24	We need to recapture something of the early Christian's spirit and zeal. Every Christian an evangelical experience, however limited, to share with his fellowmen. Such witnessing will deepen and strengthen his own faith and be the means of leading others to Christian commitment.
M	22	Mark 10:2-12
T	23	Luke 15:1-10
W	24	Luke 15:11-32
T	25	Luke 22:1-20	MAUNDY THURSDAY
Good Friday The Crucifixion of Our Lord			Isaiah 52:13-53:12 John 18:1-19:42
F	26	Psalms 22	Given a greater interest, and participation, on the part of the laity and the outreach of the Church becomes more effective.
S	27	Luke 23:50-56
13] Easter Day The Resurrection of Our Lord			1 Cor. 5:6-8    1 Cor. 15:12-20 Mark 16:1-8    Matthew 28:1-10
S	28	Psalms 118:14-24	Instead of one voice crying in the wilderness there will be many voices bearing testimony of God's saving grace. Every congregation has some devoted Christians who should be encouraged to do the work of an evangelist, especially during this period of Lent, when so many souls may be won to Christ.
M	29	John 20:19-31
T	30	Luke 16:1-17
W	31	Luke 16:19-31

Fourth Month

APRIL, 1948

30 Days

Days		DAILY BIBLE LESSON	DENOMINATIONAL EMPHASIS  April: Faith Triumphant "Now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept."
Week	Month
T	1	Luke 17:1-10	Christianity is the religion of the Resurrection. Through the centuries Christian preachers have pointed to the Cross, but they have always stressed the victory won over death by Jesus.
F	2	Luke 17:11-19
S	3	Luke 17:20-37

14] The First Sunday after Easter (Quasimodogeniti)

1 John 5:4-12      1 Peter 1:3-9
John 20:19-31      John 21:15-19

S	4	Psalm 66	The Christ who rose triumphantly from the grave is here today. He is alive, and at work in our world. He is present where two or three meet in His name. He still breathes upon us, and says, "Receive ye the Holy Spirit." He is still transforming weak, broken, helpless individuals, into strong, integrated, useful, men and women. He still gives that peace which the world cannot give nor take away. He is our Friend, who offers us forgiveness and eternal life.
M	5	Luke 18:1-14
T	6	Mark 10:13-16
W	7	Mark 10:17-31
T	8	Mark 10:32-34
F	9	Mark 10:35-45
S	10	Mark 10:46-52

15] The Second Sunday after Easter (Misericordias Domini)

1 Peter 2:21-25      Ephesians 1:16-23
John 10:11-16      John 14:1-6

S	11	Psalm 23	Glorious experiences await the Christian. "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared." Limited as we are by the flesh, it is impossible for us to form an adequate idea of Heaven. We believe, however, that the beauties and glories of Heaven are beyond our most wonderful dreams, beyond the dearest hopes of our hearts, beyond our loftiest aspirations. Unnumbered blessings await the faithful.
M	12	Luke 19:1-10
T	13	Luke 19:11-28
W	14	Mark 14:3-9
T	15	Mark 11:1-11
F	16	Luke 19:39-48
S	17	Mark 11:12-19

16] The Third Sunday after Easter (Jubilate)

1 Peter 2:11-17      1 John 4:9-14
John 16:16-23      John 12:20-26

S	18	Psalm 138	It is our privilege as Christians to live in expectation. The sufferings of this life cannot be compared with the glories of the future. "God shall wipe away all tears from our eyes." He has promised to be with us, and be our God forever and ever. He is the God who raised the dead. Who can doubt His power? Nothing is too hard for Him. Since we are His children, we are not at the mercy of the temporal.
M	19	Mark 11:20-26
T	20	Mark 11:27-33
W	21	Mark 12:1-12
T	22	Luke 20:9-19
F	23	Mark 12:13-17
S	24	Mark 12:18-27

17] The Fourth Sunday after Easter (Cantate)

James 1:16-21      2 Tim. 2:8-13
John 16:5-15      John 6:60-69

S	25	Psalm 98	Had there been no Resurrection, there would be no Christian Church today, and there would be no vital message to preach. The Resurrection means that good has overcome evil, that light has dispelled darkness, that hope has conquered despair, that life has triumphed over death. The Resurrection means that eternity has broken into time, and that the things we value most are not at the mercy of the things we value least.
M	26	Mark 12:28-37
T	27	Mark 12:41-44
W	28	Mark 13:1-13
T	29	Mark 13:14-23
F	30	Mark 13:24-37

			"As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord."
S	1	Luke 21:29-38	The State cannot take the place of home and mother.
18] The Fifth Sunday after Easter (Rogate)		James 1:22-27 John 16:23-30	1 Tim. 2:1-6 Luke 11:5-13
S	2	Psalm 65	Dictators know that the home must be weakened, if they are to succeed; that religion must be weakened, or perhaps even destroyed, if they are to remain in power. The totalitarian philosophy is that the state is responsible for the training of a child.
M	3	Mark 14:17-21
T	4	Mark 14:22-25

S	9	Psalm 42	John Wesley's mother brought up her children for God. Rearing her children was for her a God-given task. She sought to instill into the minds of her children the principles of true religion and virtue. She prayed without ceasing that her efforts would be crowned with success. Today too many fathers and mothers are unconcerned as to whether their children receive religious or moral instruction. They are unwilling fully to recognize their parental responsibility.

S	16	Psalm 104	The Festival of the Christian Home should be universally observed. The Festival of the Christian Home is a day when resolutions should be made to build happier, more cheerful, truly Christian homes, where Christ is honored and revered. The family altar could with much spiritual profit be established, where it does not exist. Seeds now sown will inevitably produce a harvest. May that harvest be one of righteousness, happiness, and love.

S	23	Psalm 99	Divorces are increasing, and the home is in peril today. Marriage is regarded with cynicism in much of our fiction, drama, and conversation. This is most unfortunate. If the Christian home disintegrates, the Church will be in grave peril, and civilization may face disaster. 30 Days

Days		DAILY BIBLE LESSON	DENOMINATIONAL EMPHASIS  June: Christian Education "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed."
Week	Month
T	1	Romans 3:1-20	"Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." These words of Jesus suggest to us how important children are in the Christian enterprise. If we should neglect to teach one generation of children in the essentials of the Christian faith, the Church could not long endure.

23} The Second Sunday after Trinity1 John 3:13-18    Romans 10:1-15
Luke 14:16-24    Matthew 9:9-13

S	6	Psalm 11	Jesus was not concerned with children only. Young people and adults were likewise the objects of his interest. There is general agreement today that growth in the Christian life is a continuous process. It is a process that extends from infancy to old age. The program of Christian education which begins with little children must also provide for the adequate nurture of youth and adults. Young adults comprise one of the most fruitful fields of work for the Church today.

24} The Third Sunday after Trinity1 Peter 5:6-11    Acts 3:1-16
Luke 15:1-10    Luke 15:11-32

S	13	Psalm 112	Christian nurture has its beginnings in the Christian home. The Church cannot be expected to build the kingdom of God alone. Christian parents are the first teachers of religion and the Christian family is the Church's best ally in making Christian experience vital. The family that honors God is helping to establish the Kingdom. The first task of Christian education is to help restore the family to its proper place as a center of Christian nurture.

Luke 6:36-42    Matthew 5:13-16

S	20	Psalm 91	Next to the Christian home, the most influential agency for Christian education has been the Sunday church school. Time was when there were as many persons enrolled in the Sunday church school as were on the membership rolls of the Church. That is not the condition now, but we are grateful that since 1945 our Sunday church school enrollments have been moving upward. We can make this trend continuous if we will work to improve our church schools.

27] The Sixth Sunday after Trinity			Romans 6:3-11    Acts 8:26-38 Matthew 5:20-26    Matthew 21:28-32
S	4	Psalm 1	As Christians we have specific civic duties, as well as definite religious responsibilities. It is superfluous to remind Christians to take an interest in public affairs. Christian citizens will vote for candidates, who in their judgment will provide the best government for the prosperity and happiness of all our people. Democracy, which has been called the political expression of Christianity, can survive, only if Christian citizens do their part in promoting efficient government.

Cooperation with other nations is absolutely essential if civilization is to survive. Jesus said, "They that take the sword shall perish with the sword." S	18	Psalm 84	Shall the church prepare for the end, taking for granted that civilization is doomed? Christians have always believed in being prepared for the end. Nevertheless, there is yet time to save our civilization. Christian citizens will seek to create a moral world. Indeed, no other kind of world can survive. Christian citizens follow Christ's teachings of brotherhood, justice, and love, and strive to have these principles put into practice by their government.

S	25	Psalm 115	Extreme nationalism must be given up. The idea that there are superior and inferior races is incompatible with Christ's teachings. Jesus taught that all people are children of God, and are entitled to political, social, economic, and religious freedom. We must try to understand other nations, and be tolerant and patient toward them. We need each other, if we wish to live. If we fail to cooperate with other nations, perhaps we do not deserve to live. Only Christianity can supply the dynamic.

		31] The Tenth Sunday after Trinity		1 Cor. 12:1-11 Luke 19:41-48	Acts 20:17-38 Matthew 23:34-39
S	1	Psalm 147	Vacations are becoming increasingly popular, and Christian young people and adults should make the best use of vacation time. The summer months afford excellent opportunities to become more definitely aware of the fact that this is our Father's World. Our camps and summer schools are doing an excellent job in making our young people more conscious of God. Those who live in cities especially appreciate the privileges thus afforded.

S	8	Psalm 33	The comparative leisure of the summer enables us to read, meditate, study, and cultivate the devotional life. The summer months really give our souls a chance to catch up with our bodies. Many people today are so busy making a living, that they have no time actually to live. Many Christian people are away from home during these days, but in nearly every case they can continue uninterrupted the excellent habit of worship.

Picnics, hikes, and games help to build family solidarity. Parents and children will rejoice in the privilege of worshipping together, perhaps along a stream, on mountain top, in the forest, or at the seashore. S	22	Psalm 113	Jesus realized the need for rest. He said to his disciples, "Come ye apart into a desert place, and rest awhile." He believed that a vacation would give them new vigor, and build up a reserve for the future. It would also give him an opportunity to teach his disciples the important truths they needed to know, without the disadvantages of molestation. In like manner, vacations are valuable for ministers, teachers, and other church leaders today.

S	5	Psalms 8	A minister studies as much as a teacher, writes as much as an editor, and makes more calls than a doctor. He labors for world betterment. His wife is equally busy in Christian work. That a minister may be free to follow his spiritual calling, he should get a living salary; also a pension, and relief, if necessary, when aged or disabled. 40] The Nineteenth Sunday after Trinity			Eph. 4:22-28      James 5:13-20 Matthew 9:1-8      John 9:24-41
S	3	Psalms 29	For a time, the opinion prevailed that any expansion effort must be confined to following up migrants from our own con- gregations. Later, it seemed a real advance when we sought out other people who were of German background. Such folks were not former members of our congregations in east- ern States, but at least there was a basic similar culture! Then we perceived that National Missions is not confined to caring for people of our own religious or cultural background.

S	10	Psalms 107:31-43	We began to see that our missionary task is greater than simply seeking people of similar social and educational cul- ture. The task really is to seek people, and so cultivate them that they arrive at a common Christian culture. This new concept brought in a new day in planning National Missions. As a denomination, we began to feel a responsi- bility, along with other Christians, for bringing the Good News to all America. This changed concept tremendously

National Missions, therefore, is concerned with population shifts, so as to serve new groupings of people; but there are population islands, too, that dare not be deserted by the Church. S	7	Psalm 39	The Kingdom Roll Call is a problem in human relations, not a plan for raising money—it has primarily to do with people and not with pocketbooks. The Roll Call affords an opportunity to Christians to undergird the progress of the Christian enterprise to which they profess allegiance and support. The Roll Call is not a money-measure, but a man- or woman-measure, measuring on the one hand people's capabilities to give and, on the other hand, people's readiness to serve.

S	14	Psalm 111	The budget toward which the Kingdom Roll Call is directed is not a list of bills payable, but a catalog of lives released, in part or in whole. It is a roster of people, functioning in a high, human way, for people at home and over the whole world. As we contribute from week to week we release our own life and substance. ## Reflections on the General Synod

DR. L. W. GOEBEL, President

THE report on the state of the Church in general and of the Evangelical and Reformed Church in particular, as found in the YEAR Book, is at the same time a record of the faith and the achievements of the members of our denomination. It is your Church which herewith gives an accounting, in the form of reports, rosters and statistics, of its ongoing work as well as its program for the future.

The primary program formulating agency of our Church is a democratically organized assembly known as the General Synod. It is composed of duly elected delegates representing the 34 Synods and thus ultimately each congregation and every member. Since this article is written in the weeks following the triennial meeting of the General Synod in St. Louis, Missouri, July 9-16, 1947, it is but natural that we should welcome this opportunity to evaluate its actions and to discover in what manner it affected our ongoing work. It is in the nature of things that the General Synod not merely looks to the future, but also reviews the work of the past.

With gratitude toward God were we able to report that the preceding triennium has been one of growth. This applies, first of all, to an increase in membership, so that now we are a body numbering 708,328 communicant members directly serving more than one million people. A corresponding increase in Sunday Church School enrollment gave additional cause for joy. Moreover, the reports revealed an advance in the area of stewardship responsibility. A much larger number of congregations than at any previous time in our history have paid their apportionment in full. This means individual members have recognized more clearly than ever before their obligation toward the causes which constitute the program of the denomination. In addition, very generous sums were contributed toward the educational and benevolent institutions. Finally, the challenge to alleviate the sufferings of people in war-ravaged countries met with a response which enabled us to exceed our goal of $2,000,000. For all this not only the General Synod but our whole Church praises God whose spirit has been at work among us.

The General Synod, however, also looked with faith and confidence toward the future. It adopted a program of advance, which we in all humility are privileged to characterize as forward looking. It challenged the Board of National Missions to accept the opportunities which confront us for the establishment of new mission churches in every section of the country and more especially on the West coast. It supported the program of the Commission on Evangelism which calls for a gross increase in membership during the triennium of 210,000. It endorsed the effort of the Board of Christian Education to bring the total enrollment in our Church Schools to a minimum of one-half million and it voted its approval for the creation of new and more adequate lesson material, so that the fundamental truths of God's word might more effectively be taught young and old alike.

Unavoidably this session of the General Synod found itself impelled to look beyond the confines of the denomination and the borders of our own land to the world at large. It took notice anew of the suffering of many millions in Europe and Asia who are deprived of the mere necessities of life. At the same time it was aware that the Church need do more than to feed and clothe the body. It would bring the hopeless millions of earth unto a living communion with God. To this end we need to have a share in the restoration of the religious life of many countries, long a part of Christendom, and the establishment of new centers for the preaching of the gospel in areas hitherto not under its influence. For the undergirding of these tasks General Synod authorized the ingathering of a fund of not less than $3,000,000. This sum was recognized as an absolute minimum necessary to enable our Church to meet its just share of the total program of relief on the part of the world church.

Before the General Synod adjourned a new Commission for World Service was appointed. At this writing a Campaign Committee, composed of representatives of the 34 Synods, the Boards and agencies of the Church, and the members of the Commission, is in process of formation. It will begin to function in September and ere the year comes to a close we trust our people will have given evidence that the faith of the General Synod in their compassion with the brother in need has been justified. We are confident that our Church whole-heartedly endorses this undertaking and that our people will pour out their treasure to undergird this program of Relief, Restoration and Advance.

Realizing that the value of the dollar has decreased and that, therefore, the Church, if it would keep its work on the same high level, needs to be undergirded in its regular program more generously, the General Synod asked our churches to accept a 17% increase in apportionment giving. This is a reasonable advance and we have no doubt that it will have the support of our people.

The General Synod also had before it the matter of union with the Congregational Christian Churches. By an overwhelming vote in favor of the Basis of Union, as submitted by the two Commissions, did the representatives of the Church give evidence of their conviction that the day has come in which the followers of Christ must present a united front to the world and bear a common witness to God's saving grace. Even now this action has moved another large Church body, through its leadership, at a convention in the last week of July, to express the hope that it, too, might be permitted to enter this larger fellowship of faith. Thus in America, as in Europe and Asia, God's Spirit is bringing the scattered portions of the body of Christ into a closer fellowship with one another.

Of resolutions there were many at this past meeting of the General Synod. But the actions taken will be of little avail unless every member of our Church highly resolves to dedicate himself more earnestly to the building of Christ's Church, the salvation of souls and the utter redemption of life. Unto that end may God give us grace.

General Synod High-Lights

THE seventh meeting of the General Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, the highest legislative body of the Church, was held at St. Louis, Missouri, from July 9 to 16, 1947. The officers of the General Synod and the large local committee under the guidance of Rev. Norman C. Zulauf collaborated for months in advance, attending to the multitude of details. The Jefferson Hotel was the official headquarters of the meeting, and all business sessions were held there. The facilities of the nearby Episcopal Cathedral were kindly placed at our disposal for the meeting of committees and other Synod. History was made by the presence of thirteen women delegates—eleven elected and two delegates at large. The average daily attendance of delegates was 297—152 ministers and 145 lay members. The top attendance was reached on Friday, July 11, with 159 ministers and 155 lay delegates present for a total of 314.

In addition to the above, among the visitors who were present unofficially were missionaries, heads of benevolent and educational institutions, many ministers of our own and other communions, and a goodly group of fraternal representatives of the Congregational Christian Churches who were groups, as well as for a religious service on Thursday evening, July 10. St. Peter's and St. Paul's Churches were also hosts to evening worship services.

Registration

More than 300 elected delegates representing the thirty-four Synods were in attendance. Thirty-two of the 34 presidents of the Synods were present. In addition, there were present the delegates at large, with voice but no vote, including the chairmen and executive secretaries of the administrative Boards, of the commissions, of the men's and women's national organizations and of the young people's department, the presidents of the theological seminaries, and the editors of the Church papers of the General much in evidence when the report of the Committee on Closer Union with Other Churches was considered on Friday afternoon, July 11.

Organization

After being called to order and led in prayer by President Goebel, the General Synod effected an organization by electing Dr. Allan S. Meck of York, Pa., as Moderator, and Dr. Robert C. Stanger of Detroit, Mich., as Vice-Moderator.

Atmosphere

Under the direction of the Department of Promotion, the Boards, agencies and institutions of the Church outdid themselves in providing atmosphere for the meetings. Around the sides of the large Crystal Room of the Hotel there were thirteen booths, each representing in visual form the work of our many kingdom interests and causes at home and abroad. The exhibits excelled anything ever shown before. Tables laden with literature and supplies, photographs and paint-

But this spirit of ecumenicity shone brightest and best when the General Synod adopted a Forward Looking Program for the 1948-1950 triennium which included a goal of $3,000,000 for relief, reconstruction and advance, in addition to the regular benevolence ings, graphs and posters, and many other items designed to inform and help the delegates in their work back home were centers of interest throughout the week. A pictorial story of the progress of the General Synod was displayed day by day, the work of the Bureau of Audio-Visual Aid. The use of the accompanying pictures is made possible through the courtesy of this Bureau.

Ecumenicity

Ecumenicity was the watchword of the hour. It became vocal at every turn. It highlighted sermons and addresses, reports and discussions. It was given public expression in the great mass meeting held in the Kiel Auditorium on Sunday evening, July 13, when more than 7000 witness bearers were assembled to hear the great address by Dr. Carl E. Schneider, recently returned from the devastated war countries of Europe, upon the subject, "The Voice of the Church in the Chaos of Europe."

apportionment of more than $6,000,000. The features of this program are shown elsewhere in this volume. Surely the provincial mind and the small soul felt out of place as the General Synod addressed itself to the consideration of world problems in the Church and in the social order.

Officers' Reports

By way of setting the mode for the spirit and thinking of the meeting, great significance always attaches to the reports of the President and Secretary of the Church. These were heard during the opening sessions, and were referred to the proper committee.

Dr. Goebel in the President's report called attention to the plight of war prisoners and displaced persons: "The General Synod should not fail to petition our government to offer a home to a large portion of these unfortunate people, and every Christian will think with shame of the millions of prisoners of war employed as slave laborers.

"The responsibility for this utterly indefensible practice rests on many nations, including our own. My conscience is troubled that no great wave of moral indignation has swept our nation, or even the rank and file of our church membership, in protest."

The Secretary's report read by Dr. Lampe offered much reason for encouragement in the area of the Church's statistics. For the first time in the life of the united Church has the communicant membership passed the 700,000 mark, the official membership on December 31, 1946, being 708,382. All of the Synods but one reported a net gain in 1946. Likewise, the Church School enrollment, which for some years had steadily declined, for the second successive year showed a trend upward, the enrollment being 433,410 at the end of 1946. The spirit of giving as reflected in the contribu-

A rededication of our lives and our substance would bring greater blessings, almost beyond conception."

The report included the names of 138 ordained ministers and two licentiates who passed away during the triennium. With the General Synod standing in reverent attention, Dr. Charles E. Schaeffer led in the memorial prayer.

President Goebel, Secretary Lampe and Treasurer Keck were reelected for six-year terms, and along with an expression of appreciation of their faithful services were voted a substantial increase in salary.

Worship Program

President Goebel delivered the keynote sermon upon the theme, "Unto the Healing of the Nations," in St. Peter's Church on Wednesday evening. On Thursday evening Dr. Calvin H.

tions for benevolences and for congregational purposes expressed itself in large increases all along the line.

Dr. Lampe called attention to the need for more ministers in the Church. (See the quotation at length from this section of the report as given on page 35 of this volume). He also drew great encouragement from the growth of the spirit of Christian Stewardship during the last few decades. "We have, however," he said, "hardly begun to put God first. It is not the acceptance of the principle of stewardship but the practice of it that makes us worthy Christian stewards. The giving of our money is the acid test, but stewardship includes the giving of our time, talents and of life itself for Christ and the Church. . . . God is challenging our Church today to far greater things than the Church has called our members to undertake.

Wingert spoke upon the subject, "The Synod at Miletus," in the Episcopal Cathedral, and on Friday evening Dr. James E. Wagner was the preacher in St. Paul's Church. Sixty ministers were guest preachers in as many churches of greater St. Louis on Sunday morning.

Every day's session was begun with a hymn and prayer, and a special devotional period at which the messages were brought by ministers in attendance concluded the morning sessions. The religious services naturally reached their climax in the great Spiritual Convocation held in the Kiel Auditorium on Sunday evening. Always considered the outstanding religious service of the General Synod meeting, the Convocation this year had added interest because of the presence of Dr. Carl E. Schneider, the speaker, who for two years was the denominational representative working with the World Council of Churches in Europe.

Church Union

Three days before the vote was taken to adopt the much revised Basis of Union, an entire afternoon was devoted to discussion, during which period honest convictions pro and con were expressed. Seated upon the platform were fifteen fraternal delegates from the Congregational Christian Churches under the chairmanship of Dr. Ferdinand Q. Blanchard of Cleveland. He and Dr. George W. Richards presented the merits of the proposed union. Then, on the morning of July 15, the great moment came when the General Synod by a vote of 281 to 23 decided that the Basis of Union should be approved, which vote meant that the matter should now be referred to the Synods of the Church for their vote. Final validation will be contingent upon a two-thirds favorable vote in the thirty-four Synods. This matter will be on the agenda of every Synod as it meets in legislative session in the spring of 1948. If two-thirds vote favorably, the General Council shall declare the Basis of Union adopted. The overwhelmingly favorable vote at St. Louis was met with prolonged applause, after which all present united in singing one stanza of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

Women in Evidence

History was made at St. Louis because of the representation and participation of the women delegates of the Church. In addition to eleven women delegates elected by their Synods there were two women delegates at large representing the Women's Guild.

Very interesting and perhaps most significant of all is the fact that two women, Mrs. V. J. Bartell and Mrs. Milton C. Lang, were elected members of the General Council. This is the first time in the history of the united Church that a woman was elected to the General Council. Nine other women were elected to membership on Boards, commissions, institutions of the Church and on interdenominational groups.

Worthy of special mention is the fact that five women were present as official fraternal representatives of the Congregational Christian Churches. They were exceedingly interested in all the work of the General Synod, and two of them remained until adjournment.

Significant Actions

All constitutional requirements having been met, at the first session of the General Synod President Goebel declared the amended Section 41 of the Constitution in effect. The Section as amended now reads: "This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the General Synod with the subsequent approval of two-thirds of the Synods before the next meeting of the General Synod. If approved, the General Council at its next meeting shall declare the amendment adopted and in effect."

The General Synod expressed its pleasure at having in their midst Dr. Bela Vasady, Dean of the Theological faculty of the University of Debreczin, Hungary, and a member of the Provisional Committee of the World Council of Churches.

The General Synod reaffirmed its adherence to the Federal Council of Churches, and declared that it is in accord with its program and work and with the general trend of its attitudes and pronouncements.

The General Synod felt that, in view of the possible merger, action should be deferred in the establishment of central denominational headquarters.

term "Board of Directors of Elmhurst College" was directed to be deleted from Section 94 of the By-Laws, Article VII, Section 108 of the By-Laws to be eliminated.

Twelve Synods having petitioned the General Synod with reference to a full-time president of a Synod, it was voted to add to Part V of the By-Laws, Article V, Section 57, paragraph a, the following: "A Synod may, at its own option, elect a president on full time." Add to paragraph b: "A Synod president on full time shall have been a member of the Synod for not less than five years." Add to paragraph c: "The term of office of a Synod President on full time shall be four years, and he shall be eligible to succeed

The General Synod adopted the recommendation of the General Council that $35,000 be placed in the budget of the General Synod annually for Student Aid, and that the General Council be authorized to disburse this help on the basis of need, funds thus allotted to be administered by the Synods through their Board of Examiners.

The petition of nineteen Synods that a Commission on Stewardship be established did not meet with sufficient favor, and the motion to adopt was lost, much to the regret of many members of the General Synod.

The General Council was empowered by the General Synod to appoint a special committee to study the matter of the procedure in electing delegates to the General Synod.

The General Synod approved the joint proposal of the Board of National Missions and the Commission on Christian Social Action to employ a staff member in the field of race relations.

Announcement was made of a contribution of $500 by a delegate to Miss Gertrude Hoy to buy Bibles for her work in China.

It was voted to include an item of $100,000 in the General Synod's budget to cover the publication of necessary Church School lesson materials during the coming triennium.

The General Synod voted to enter upon a fifteen months' period of evangelism from October, 1949, through 1950, in cooperation with all other Protestant bodies.

The Boards of Church-related institutions were urged to implement the following labor standards at the earliest possible time: (a) A forty-hour week for non-executive employees, and additional compensation for overtime at established overtime rates; (b) A minimum wage of 65 cents per hour for unskilled labor and conformity of wage scales at least to standard wages in the local community; (c) Readiness to enter into collective bargaining with the employees, should a majority of the employees so desire.

The General Synod encouraged congregations to recognize their responsibility to minister to the entire community, including persons of races other than those adjacent to the churches, and urged that pastors take the initiative in launching a program looking toward an unsegregated Church in an unsegregated society.

The General Synod expressed its disapproval of the widespread advertising and idealization of alcoholic beverages in newspapers and the many other advertising media.

The General Synod supported the principle of federal aid to education, provided that state control of education be fully protected, that discrimination against racial minorities be prohibited, and that only public, tax-supported schools be eligible for such aid.

The General Council was authorized to select delegates to the National Council of Churches if and when it be organized.

Congregations were urged to consider placing The Messenger into every home. Where this is impracticable, subscriptions should be provided for consistory members and other church leaders.

A retirement pension of $500 per year was approved and authorized for all members of pension funds who have met the necessary requirements.

Effective January 1, 1948, a congregation or organization will pay 8% instead of 5% of a minister's annual salary toward a retirement or disability annuity.

A contribution of $100 to the World Service Fund was voted as a tribute to the memory of Mr. Earl M. Abele, a delegate from Northwest Ohio Synod, who passed away while attending the sessions.

The Commission on World Service and the President of the Church were empowered to appoint a campaign committee for the ingathering of funds for Relief, Restoration and Advance.

The Progress of Our Proposed Union with the Congregational Christian Churches

DR. WILLIAM E. LAMPE, Secretary

FROM September 1946 great forward strides were made toward the completion of plans for the proposed union of the Evangelical and Reformed Church and the Congregational Christian Churches. That month saw the first of many meetings of our Committee on Closer Relations with Other Churches and the Congregational Christian Commission on Inter-church Relations and Christian Unity. In the succeeding months conference after conference of the corresponding boards, commissions, auxiliary organizations and other agencies of the two denominations was held.

The organization and functioning of

The Evangelical and Reformed Church is a union of two bodies, each of which came into being as a denomination, with officially constituted boards and agencies. In the merged Church these boards and agencies became stronger and more definitely organized. The functions of the General Synod, too, and of the Synods were more clearly defined than those of the corresponding groups in the Congregational Christian Churches.

The Evangelical Synod of North America and the Reformed Church in the United States united on the basis of mutual love and trust, without attempting to work out in advance the the boards and agencies of the Congregational Christian Churches developed gradually over a period of decades or even of a century. As time went on the individual congregations cooperated more and more closely in missionary and benevolent work, through the various boards. These boards were really societies for the conduct of the common work. As their activities developed they found it advisable to meet at the same time and place and to work together. As a result the congregations became denominationally-minded. The General Council, corresponding to our General Synod, was organized. Its membership and that of the boards and agencies were closely related and even, in many instances, identical.

problems of organization or administration, except in regard to general principles. Other denominations which have sought to follow this procedure have encountered such difficulties that they have abandoned the effort to unite. For a time it was felt that the Evangelical and Reformed Church and the Congregational Christian Churches could unite and work out the details afterward, but the Congregational Christian General Council, at its meeting in June 1946 voted that these matters should be determined in advance. Consequently the joint meetings referred to above were held.

The original draft of the Basis of Union was published in March 1943. Four revisions were issued during the next few years. Another was made in October 1946 and still another in November 1946, but neither was printed. At length all of the revisions were agreed upon by the proper persons and groups, and on January 22, 1947, the final draft was adopted by unanimous vote of the Joint Committee on Union and was presented for final action by the two communions.

All of the boards and agencies of the Evangelical and Reformed Church approved the parts of the Basis of Union pertaining to themselves and their work. The Basis was then submitted to our Synods for their consideration.

The General Synod, meeting at St. Louis, July 9-16, 1947, devoted the entire afternoon of July 11th to a free and full discussion of the Basis of Union. Fifteen fraternal delegates from the Congregational Christian Churches were present and took part in the discussion.

On the morning of July 15th the following resolutions were adopted by a rising vote of 281 to 23:

"The General Synod approves the Basis of Union of the Congregational Christian Churches and the Evangelical and Reformed Church, as prepared and finally revised January 22, 1947, by the Joint Committee consisting of the Commission on Interchurch Relations and Christian Unity of the Congregational Christian Churches and the Committee on Closer Relations with Other Churches of the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

"The General Synod approves the procedure steps as outlined in Paragraph X of the Basis of Union and as summarized in the preliminary statement entitled 'Procedures' as found on page three of the printed pamphlet.

"The General Synod recommends that all congregations, Synods, boards and national agencies, including the Church publications, continue to disseminate information concerning the Congregational Christian Churches, to enter into cooperative endeavor as shall engender Christian fellowship and perspective in preparation for the challenge of and union in the United Church.

"The Committee on Closer Relations with Other Churches is hereby continued by the General Synod. Its purpose shall be to articulate our Church's historic zeal for ecumenicity, to foster and study plans for worldwide mission and witness and to explore further possibilities for union with other Churches toward a more inclusive united Church."

In the Congregational Christian Churches the boards and agencies approved the Basis of Union. The Executive Committee, corresponding to our General Council, likewise approved it. It then submitted the Basis to all the delegates to their 1946 General Council, inviting them to meet by Conference groups and to appoint from each group one representative to meet with and advise the Executive Committee as to whether or not it should send the Basis officially to the churches. On April 30, 1947, at Columbus, Ohio, the Executive Committee met with these representatives and by a vote of nearly five to one decided to send the Basis of Union officially to the Conferences, Associations and churches. The churches and their members are to vote approval or disapproval of the Basis before April 1, 1948; the Conferences and Associations are to cast their votes before June 1, 1948. In June 1948, at the regular meeting of the General Council, which is to be held in Oberlin, Ohio, the delegates will vote, on the basis of the votes taken by the Conferences, Associations, churches and members, on the question of effecting the union. The General Council is expected to vote approval if seventy-five per cent of the Conferences voting, seventy-five per cent of the Associations voting, seventy-five per cent of the churches voting, and seventy-five per cent of the members voting have already approved the Basis of Union.

The Synods of the Evangelical and Reformed Church are expected to vote for or against the Basis of Union at their annual meetings in the spring of 1948. If two-thirds of the Synods vote approval, the General Council shall declare it adopted.

The Committee on Closer Relations with Other Churches shall then request the General Council to call a special meeting of the General Synod to conclude whatever business it needs to transact. This meeting shall be held at the same time and place as a similar meeting of the General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches. Then the General Synod of the Evangelical and Reformed Church and the General Council of the Congregational Christian Churches shall meet in joint session in order to consummate the union. It is planned that this joint meeting be held in the fall of 1948.

The Forward Looking Program

PURSUANT to actions taken by the General Council at several meetings in 1946, the President of the Church was empowered to appoint the executives of our Boards and agencies to serve as a committee under the joint sponsorship of the Department of United Promotion and the chairman of the General Council to present to the General Synod in 1947, through the General Council, a carefully correlated and challenging forward looking program.

Accordingly, a meeting was held in Cleveland on January 6 and 7, 1947. All of the Boards and agencies of the Church had been requested to make a careful study of their work with a view to formulate a forward looking program for the 1948-1950 triennium to be submitted to the General Synod at its 1947 meeting. Every Board, Commission and auxiliary organization was represented at the meeting by at least one member. The President, first Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer represented the General Council. The Department of United Promotion, the Commission on World Service, the Committee on Life Service and The Messenger were also represented.

The representatives of most of the above named groups presented carefully prepared statements embodying actions or policies adopted by their groups. Director LeVan read a prepared statement regarding the ongoing work of the Church for the triennium 1948-1950. Drs. LeVan, Lentz and Lampe were appointed a committee to prepare the findings of the meeting and to include them in a final total statement. As a result, the unanimous conviction of all who attended the Cleveland meeting was that conditions in America and throughout the world demanded some forward movement on the part of the Church in the very near future. The general findings were summarized under the three-fold heads of Goals, Apportionments and World Service, and were made a matter of record.

The approach of the time for the General Synod meeting found the world situation materially changed.

The war had drawn to a merciful close, but it left many scars and gaping wounds. The need, suffering and tragedy following the war differed from those during the war in kind but not in degree. The Church readily sensed the opportunity for an advance in many areas because of the unparalleled need at home and abroad. To assist in meeting the desperate situation and to take advantage of the unprecedented opportunity, a Forward Looking Program was devised to be presented to the General Synod for its consideration and action.

The General Synod in session at St. Louis looked favorably upon the Program submitted, and heartily endorsed its proposals by setting a minimum goal of $3,000,000 for the triennium 1948-1950, to be allocated as follows:

Commission on World Service (relief primarily) ..	$1,750,000
Board of International Missions (restoration primarily) .....	750,000
Board of National Missions (building churches on west coast) .....	325,000
Board of Christian Education and Publication (construction of new curriculum) .....	100,000
Board of Pensions and Relief (reserve for new Pension Fund) .....	75,000

The understanding is that a part of the sum earmarked for relief can, if desired, be channeled through the Board of International Missions.

The Forward Looking program as endorsed by the General Synod is an inclusive one, covering Relief, Restoration and Advance. The Restoration claim is paramount because of the destruction of much of the missionary property and equipment in Japan and China during the war. Since the projects of the Board of International Missions are so closely related to relief abroad, it is expected that this Board will work in intimate cooperation with the Commission on World Service in the advancement of its part of the Program.

During the last triennium the General Council received an appeal to appropriate $1,000,000 for expansion in the Los Angeles area on the west coast. The Board continually finds itself challenged to establish new congregations, many of which must be declined largely because of the greater amount of capital required to build and equip churches than formerly. It is President Goebel's conviction that the General Synod should ask the Board of National Missions to set for itself the establishing of one hundred new congregations during the coming triennium.

Along with the other denominations which are leaders in the field of religious education, our Board of Christian Education and Publication faces the necessity of building a new curriculum in collaboration with the Board of the Congregational Christian Churches. This will necessitate a considerable outlay. In addition, there is the great necessity of undergirding the work of Christian Education in personnel, methods and equipment so as to stem the tide of irreligion and give a new impetus to Church School evangelism.

The Board of Pensions and Relief needs at least $75,000 as a reserve for the proposed new Pension Fund, not only to give it financial soundness, but also to make our pension appropriations as commensurate as possible with those of the Congregational Christian Churches, so that the disparity may not be so evident after the union.

The General Synod also voted its whole-hearted approval of the non-financial goals of the Forward Looking Program proposed by the various Boards and agencies for the coming triennium, as follows:

1. An increase in the Church School enrollment from 433,410 to 500,000. It is gratifying to know that during 1945 and 1946 the curve of Church School enrollment as well as average attendance has been upward, and every effort of the Board to further strengthen the line at these points should be accorded the fullest support and cooperation by every local school.
2. The goal of the Department of Evangelism to add 210,000 new communicant members by December 31, 1950—60,000 during 1948, 70,000 during 1949, and 80,000 during 1950.
3. An increase in the membership of the Churchmen's Brotherhood from 35,000 to 50,000—the equivalent of an increase of 5,000 annually during the triennium.
4. Increasing the number of subscribers to The Messenger from 43,000 to 75,000.

President Goebel announced the appointment of the Commission on World Service of fifteen members, consisting of Dr. William L. Rest, of Chicago, chairman, Dr. David D. Baker, Prof. Carl E. Schneider, Rev. William C. Nelson, Dr. J. N. LeVan, Mr. F. A. Keck, Mr. C. W. Hess, Mrs. Ruth Steva, Dr. Elmer F. J. Arndt, Dr. Dobbs F. Ehlman, Rev. Reginald Helfferich, Rev. Jerome A. Wenner, Rev. O. Walter Wagner, Rev. H. Grady Shoffner and Rev. Stephen Szabo. This Commission and the President of the Church were empowered by the General Synod to appoint a committee for the ingathering of the funds for Relief, Restoration and Advance, cooperating with Rev. Henry C. Koch, Secretary of the Commission on World Service and Director of the campaign.

Acting immediately upon the mandate of the General Synod, the Commission of fifteen met the week following the General Synod's adjournment and projected plans for the campaign. On September 9, 1947, a meeting of the Campaign Committee of 100, composed of a director and co-director from each of the 34 Synods, members of the Commission on World Service, staff members of the cooperating Boards, and a group of members at large including ten members nominated by the Women's Guild met in Cleveland, and assumed full responsibility for guiding the campaign in the Synods, and for counseling with every congregation in the Church.

The campaign committee is acting upon the instruction of the General Synod that the sum of $3,000,000 is a "minimum goal." A thoroughly integrated plan outlining the work on the denominational level as well as on the Synod level has been evolved and is being followed. As a symbol for the project the committee has chosen a triangle bearing upon its sides the three objects, RELIEF, RESTORATION, ADVANCE, and within the triangle the three incentives to action, 3 MILLION DOLLARS, 3 YEARS and 3 MANDATORY NEEDS.

The 100 Congregations Leading Contributors

The splendid financial report of Treasurer F. A. Keck for 1946, published in attractive book form, devotes a column for every Synod to the contributions for World Service received from February 1, 1945, to the end of the fiscal year. While the total received up to that time, including gifts from organizations, totaled $1,859,493, the $2,000,000 mark was passed some months before the General Synod meeting at St. Louis.

Selected from the reports by Synods as presented in this book are the 100 leading congregations whose contributions since February 1, 1945, ranged from $15,441 to $2,618. The largest organizational contribution, $49,086.13, came from the Women's and Girls' Guild. The largest individual contribution of which the editor has any knowledge was $10,000.

The list of 100 congregations, together with their contributions, follows:

Students for the Ministry

The following trenchant paragraph is lifted bodily from the report of Dr. William Lampe, Secretary of the Church, presented at the recent meeting of the General Synod convened at St. Louis, Mo., and adopted by that body:—

"In my opinion one of the very greatest needs of our Church is a number of additional pastors to serve our congregations. We have almost continuously more than three hundred congregations without pastors. These are in approximately two hundred charges. It is true that some of the charges are hardly able financially to support pastors, but there are always a hundred to a hundred and fifty charges that are abundantly able to do so. Every new church established by our Board of National Missions requires a pastor. Our foreign mission fields—particularly Japan and China—now require a large number of ordained missionaries. During the war our seminaries, adopting the accelerated plan, graduated men in two years instead of three. All were quickly placed. Now the number of students in our theological seminaries is abnormally small. Every year we lose about fifty ministers through death, and hardly enough new ministers are ordained to take their places. Recently we have been dismissing more of our ministers to other denominations than we have been receiving (from them). In this day the Church of God needs strong leadership, and our own denomination has imperative need of several hundred able and consecrated men right now."

This places the need for ministerial students squarely before the Church. The three theological seminaries are equipped and manned to enroll many more than they are caring for at present, and it is confidently hoped that the upswing to the former levels of enrollment is not far distant. A year ago President Goebel's office in collaboration with the Committee on Life Enlistment reported that contacts were being preserved with about 1200 young men and women who through various channels had indicated their purpose to give themselves to full-time Christian service. It is very manifest that promotional work of this character cannot be carried on at fever heat continually. Along with it there must be the interest and prayers and effort on the part of the pastors, other religious leaders, and especially the parents in the local congregations in encouraging and influencing young men to give themselves to the Christian ministry.

Believing that every effort should be put forth to make the Church conscious of this great need, the Committee on Statistical Blanks again inserted a rubric in the congregational report blank requesting the number of ministerial students now in denominational and other institutions. In spite of every effort put forth by the Committee to explain this rubric, many of our pastors seemed not to understand that only students for the ministry should be included in the report. The appended summary by Synods, taken from the congregational statistical reports, is presented for whatever it may be worth:—

Names and Stations of Missionaries

of the Evangelical and Reformed Church

The following list of active missionaries includes a number of men and women who one year ago were only under appointment and were taking courses of study to fit themselves for future responsibilities and usefulness in other lands. Likewise the present list includes a number who will answer the call after having completed their term of preparation. Then, also, back of these groups is another class of embryo missionaries who in their home churches, in camps and conferences and through the example and inspiration of consecrated teachers are receiving the vision for service, and will soon be ready and willing to go to the "uttermost parts," if need be. Surely the Lord is sending forth laborers into His harvest."

The names in italics after the post-office addresses of lay missionaries represent the stations at which they are working. These names are not part of the post office addresses. The post office addresses of ordained missionaries will be found in the Register of Ministers in this edition of the Year Book.

Deceased Ministers of the Church

From September 1, 1946, to August 15, 1947

WE reverently present brief obituaries and likenesses of the forty-four ministers who passed away during the period indicated above. Their average age was 73, which was unusually low because several died very young. The oldest was 91 and the youngest 28. Two were licentiates. Eleven were pastors or otherwise active in the ministry at the time of their death, while thirty-three were retired or inactive.

The statistics of recent years show that on the average one minister has died every eight days. The ranks should be steadily recruited throughout the Church so that others may follow in their train. "O, may Thy soldiers faithful, true and bold, fight as the saints who nobly fought of old!"

FORM FOR BEQUESTS

Persons desiring to remember the Church or any of its Boards, institutions or agencies in their last will and testament are encouraged and advised to secure the services of a lawyer or of some other qualified individual. This is advisable because of the variations in State laws governing bequests to religious and charitable agencies, especially with reference to the time that must elapse between the date of the will and the death of the testator. Otherwise, the intent of the testator may be defeated.

The greatest care should be exercised so that all bequests are made in the manner prescribed by law. Where several Boards or institutions are to be remembered, a separate paragraph beginning, "I give and bequeath," etc., should be made for each one. The following form for general bequests is suggested in the event that no lawyer is available for counsel:—

"I hereby give and bequeath to the Evangelical and Reformed Church, of which Mr. F. A. Keck, St. Louis, Missouri, is the treasurer, for the use of (insert here the particular cause which it is desired shall receive the bequest, or if no preference is had this clause in the will may be omitted) the sum of ..... Dollars, and the receipt of the Treasurer thereof shall be sufficient discharge for my Executor."

In designating the beneficiary of a bequest, it is of the utmost importance that the testator or his counsel use the official title of the administrative body, and the correct name and location of the Board, institution or agency to be remembered. A list of the educational institutions, orphanages, hospitals and old folks' homes is given on pages 54 to 56 of this Year Book, and the official titles of the administrative bodies are given on pages 24 to 28. The pastor should be consulted for information upon any cause or agency not so listed.

Register of Ministers

As of September 15, 1947

The following list gives the name, post-office address, the place of theological preparation and the year of ordination (or licensure, if not ordained) of every minister of the Evangelical and Reformed Church. It contains, as nearly as possible all changes of addresses to date shown above. The Constitution of our Church and the actions of our judicatories make the Secretary of the Church responsible for all records of our ministers and congregations. That this register may be correct, every minister changing his address shall notify W. S. Kerschner, Statistician, Office of the Secretary, 1505 Race St., Philadelphia 2, Pa.

Locations of Churches

The location of every congregation of the Church is listed. Where the street location is missing that information was not reported on the statistical blank.

The name of each congregation is exactly as reported by the pastor. It is presumed that this is as the congregation is designated in its charter. For example, we find Saint John, Saint Johns, and St. John's.

Please send notes of any errors immediately to W. S. Kerschner, Statistician, Office of the Secretary.

The surname and initials of the pastor appear after the name and address of each church. Reference to city, town, or state in the "Register of Ministers" will further establish identity. The title "Rev." and all degrees are omitted from this section.

Abbreviations: mi, miles; nr, near; N, north; E, east; S, south; W, west.

SYNODS OF THE EVANGELICAL AND REFORMED CHURCH

SYNODS IN PENNSYLVANIA

The Presidents of the Thirty-four Synods

SIXTEEN of the thirty-four Synods elected new presidents at the spring sessions in 1947. Nine Synods re-elected the incumbents who had already served one term. For the first time in four years all the presidents are now active pastors. The Church gratefully remembers those who have completed their tenure and relinquished their arduous duties, and offers felicitations and well-wishings to the sixteen who have assumed new responsibilities. The complete addresses may be found in the Register of Ministers, and the Rosters of the Synods indicate the extent of their jurisdiction.

"The president of the Synod shall have been a member of the Synod for not less than three years and a minister of the Church for not less than five years. . . . The term of office for the officers of the Synod shall be two years. After two full terms of office, the president and vice-president shall not be eligible to succeed themselves." (By-Laws, Article V, Sec. 57.)

Rosters of the Synods

These Rosters are furnished by the Secretary of the Church, Dr. William E. Lampe, and have been corrected to September 1, 1947. Except for the latest changes, they have been approved by the presidents of the Synods. All changes of address or in the records of ministers and congregations must be sent to the secretary of the Church (By-Laws, Sec. 87f).

Designations of Ministers without Charge

Ch—Chaplains in the Army and Navy
D—Those in denominational work—officers, secretaries, editors, presidents and professors of educational institutions, superintendents of benevolent institutions, of the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

E—Emeriti, retired or disabled
G—In Christian service, but outside the Evangelical and Reformed Church
I—Inactive, in secular work
L—Licentiates
M—Missionaries abroad

An asterisk (*) before the name of a minister or a congregation indicates that that minister or that congregation has not yet been received into full membership in our Church.

Statistical Tables of the Congregations

For the Year Ending December 31, 1946

The following congregational statistics are those reported to the office of the Secretary of the Church by the pastors or proper officials in the local congregations. The name of the pastor given is not always that of the person who prepared the report. Because all of these tabulations were completed by June 15, 1947, it was impossible here to record the many later changes in pastorates. Many of the more recent changes will be found in the official Rosters of the Synods.

For the fourth consecutive year a new high was reached in returning the 1946 statistical reports. Because of the splendid cooperation of pastors and church officials, only fifty-six reports remained outstanding upon receipt of the final reports on May 31, 1947. This is remarkable when one remembers (a) that 32 of the 56 congregations were in the same Synod: (b) that there were more than 300 vacant congregations at the beginning of the year, and (c) that 50 of the 56 not reporting had no pastors.

The nineteen 100% Synods (one less than in 1946) and the order in which they attained the coveted goal are as follows: Southern, Northwest Ohio, Northeast Ohio, Rocky Mountain, East Pennsylvania, Mercersburg, Potomac, Pacific Northwest, Central Pennsylvania, New York, Reading, Northern, Lancaster, North Illinois, Philadelphia, Lehigh, Pittsburgh Susquehanna and California. The Kansas City, Magyar, North Wisconsin, Southeast Ohio, South Illinois, South Indiana, Southwest Ohio and South Wisconsin Synods each lacked just one report of attaining the 100% goal.

The four new 100% Synods this year are California, Central Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh and Rocky Mountain. The five 100% Synods of last year which did not repeat this year are Southeast Ohio, South Illinois, South Indiana, Southwest Ohio and West New York. The 56 non-reporting congregations are distributed among the Synods as follows: Dakota 32; Iowa 4; Michigan-Indiana, Missouri Valley and Nebraska 3 each, Texas 2; and Kansas City, Magyar, North Wisconsin, Southeast Ohio, South Illinois, South Indiana, Southwest Ohio, South Wisconsin and West New York 1 each.

EXPLANATION OF CODE AND SYMBOLS

The asterisk (*) designates congregations which are affiliated, and not in full membership with the Evangelical and Reformed Church. The symbol # indicates that congregations so marked returned no report for 1946, and that the statistics used are those of a previous year, in cases where they are available.

Code for the first column: A indicates that the church is located in a unit of an area with a population of over 100,000; B, between 25,000 and 100,000; C, between 10,000 and 25,000; D, between 2,500 and 10,000; E, between 500 and 2,500; F, under 500, and in the open country.

Winnebago Indian Mission and School

Black River Falls and Neillsville, Wisconsin

Hungry children need food for bodily growth; hungry minds need stimulation for healthy mental development; hungry souls need the Bread of Life for the nurture of strong Christian character.

For 69 years the Winnebago Mission and School, one of the special projects of the Board of National Missions has heeded the command of our Lord, "Feed my lambs, feed my sheep." More than half again as many Indian children without proper care and school opportunities have applied for admission this year.

Individuals and church organizations, the Indian Mission needs your help! Your gifts and prayers are solicited. Also have fine opportunity for church organizations to handle genuine handmade Indian baskets and beadwork at a profit. For information write to Winnebago Indian Mission.

A CONCERN WITH A CONCERN

The customer is not always right, but his welfare rates above every other consideration in the Presbyterian Ministers' Fund. Costs are kept down in his interests. No time or trouble is spared to give information and advice. Claims get the right of way. Extreme measures are taken to avoid lapsing policies. Investments are made with an eye single to the good estate of the insured. In short, the policyholder receives the honors of an unseen guest at every official gathering.

HOMWOOD CHURCH HOME

1817 Virginia Avenue, Hagerstown, Md.

"FOR PEOPLE OLD AND FEEBLE"

This Home has been operating for more than twelve years without any more equipment than that of a private dwelling. With this handicap Homewood cared for the feeble, seriously ill and dying.

For lack of equipment and room many of the most needy had to be refused admission.

We are now engaged in collecting funds for an adequately equipped Home and ask for your helpful support. We offer appropriate memorials.

Beauty

IN ALTARWARE

Enduring Beauty can be High in Quality, yet Modest in Price

Beautiful, simple, dignified designs—impressive and interesting—resulting from 55 years of study and fine craftsmanship...these are factors which contribute to the expressed satisfaction of Pastors and Church Societies everywhere to Flour City Altarware. Many altar pieces stand today as memorials to service men or loved ones gone before . . . donated in their name to their church.

Supplied in magnificent heavy bronze—requiring no polishing—the pieces are so finished that they do not reflect light back towards its source, but glow softly even on dark days.

Altar Cross—27 inches in height. Lasting in quality and liturgically correct.

Crucifix—30 inches in height. Figure is finished in fine sculptural detail.

Altar Desk—Generous in size. Formed from heavy bronze plate. Ornamentation on face and sides.

Candlesticks—Beautifully styled in heavy cast bronze.

Candelabra—Matching items for cross or crucifix design. Cast in thick-walled bronze, exceptionally heavy and almost impossible to damage. Milled to perfect planes and permanently joined, candle holders are spaced to eliminate undue width. Suitable for every style of altar.

Vase—Simple classic design compliments appearance of Altarware with which it is used.

Accredited School of Nursing

Requirements for Admission—diploma from an accredited high school; all work to be done in the college preparatory or academic department thus providing university entrance requirements; stature of not less than five feet and two inches; good health and character. Students ranking in the upper third of high school graduation class are given preference.

High school courses in Latin and chemistry are not required for admission, nevertheless both are very beneficial to the student nurse.

Superlative Quality

DOWN THROUGH THE YEARS

It takes time to produce a craftsman . . . and real craftsmen to build The Artist of Organs.

The name Moller is a synonym for the highest in pipe organ achievement. Moller craftsmen have earned their name . . . through mastery of their particular skills . . . through pride in their work . . . through adherence to the ideal of surpassing past accomplishments.

For the fullest development of music in worship, insist on Moller craftsmanship and service.

1878—THE FORT WAYNE CHILDREN'S HOME—1948
of the
EVANGELICAL AND REFORMED CHURCH
R.F.D. NO. 9, FORT WAYNE, IND.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard B. Sunderman, Supt. and Matron
Our Aim: A HOME—NOT AN INSTITUTION

For 70 years our Home has served the Church well. More than 1,500 otherwise homeless children have found here a home in which they could grow up to be fine Christian men and women.

What was a dream last year is becoming a reality. Before the close of 1948 we hope to be able to build several units of the semi-cottage plan as pictured above. These are urgently needed in order that our children may be properly housed. To accomplish this we need the full support of all our FRIENDS. Is there a loved one in whose honor you may wish to establish a MEMORIAL, one that will continue doing good in the life of a child? Write to the Superintendent for further information, or make your check payable to the Fort Wayne Children's Home.

PHOEBE HOME FOR AGED AND INFIRM, ALLENTOWN, PA.
Rev. F. H. Moyer, D.D., Supt.

The Home now has an infirmary of 20 beds, which is much too small to accommodate the worthy applicants from its 567 supporting churches. A 100 bed infirmary is to be erected. The fund for that purpose has grown to $210,000. On account of big increase in building costs, more funds for that purpose are needed.

This bridge at the Marthasville location, built to a great extent with the help of mentally deficient men, literally connects the institution with the outside world. Thus they have built a bridge into our world. The bridge which we must build to them is that of sympathetic understanding, loving support and full-time Christian service.

of Christian service to the least among the brethren of the Christ, write to the superintendent of either of the two locations.

On the Marthasville and St. Charles farms, which are communities of their own, buildings and equipment provide a home for about 250 permanently handicapped human beings. Some are very helpless, needing much personal care. For them there is fellowship, entertainment, recreation. They worship the Lord at morning and evening devotionals, and in Sunday services.

But the work is suffering for lack of attendants. These workers at Emmaus must come from the rank and file of our Church. For more information on this kind

Bethany Orphans' Home

WOMELSDORF, PENNSYLVANIA
Rev. R. S. Vandevere, Superintendent

Bethany children are happy and contented. Contentment follows perfect coordination of child aspirations and manager's sympathetic understanding.

Bethany is proud of and grateful for its beautiful and healthful natural setting. But we are far more proud when we can boast of a staff of employees who can make our children truly happy in their adopted Home. When our children rejoice in the life experiences of Bethany then are we confident that we are attaining the acme of administrative ideals.

We are grateful to the members of our Evangelical and Reformed Church for the splendid support they have rendered our Home. Bethany needs and appreciates the prayers and goodwill of our many friends.

In your daily walk, enlist a new friend for Bethany.

EVANGELICAL HOME FOR CHILDREN AND AGED

"52 Years of Christian Welfare to Children and Aged"

Serving the total needs of Children—providing both institutional and foster home care for them under the Christian leadership of a capable and sympathetic staff. Our two-fold program includes also Christian care of the Church-related Aged.

The Home is licensed by the State, and the program indorsed by authorities in the field of Social Welfare.

Because of the love and loyalty churches and friends have shown, we have successfully completed 52 years of Christian Service. The past is but a challenge to a still greater future. Bequests, legacies, memorials and special gifts can enrich otherwise unfortunate lives. Remember departed loved ones by remembering the little ones and the aged at Bensenville.

"Carillon Bells"

ADDS NEW COLOR TO ORGAN MUSIC

Schulmerich CARILLONIC BELLS, the climax of development in church electronics, surpasses by far the limited powers of organ chimes. CARILLONIC BELLS not only adds the pure, brilliant loveliness of true bell tones to your organ; but can also send out full bell harmonies from your church tower.

Through CARILLONIC BELLS, your church acquires a voice of incomparable beauty in the community, a heart-stirring eloquence, loved and identified by all who hear it. Nearly seven hundred churches and institutions throughout the nation have chosen CARILLONIC BELLS for true clarity of tone and musical versatility. And now has come an even more gratifying tribute...

The famous Westminster Choir College of Princeton, New Jersey has never before provided instruction on chimes or bells. Today, however, the artistry of CARILLONIC BELLS has so impressed this school of sacred music that a course in Campanology has been inaugurated, featuring this marvelous instrument in conjunction with organ and as a tower instrument.

To add new color to the music within your church, or send forth a melodious reminder of its spiritual purpose, or to create a memorial of lasting beauty, choose Schulmerich CARILLONIC BELLS. For complete particulars, address Dept. YEF

INSURANCE IS A NECESSITY

This is the company which confines its business within the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Writes insurance on churches, hospitals, orphanages, seminaries, colleges, pastors' household goods and personal effects, pastors' widows, missionaries, commissioned lay-workers and members in the congregation.

Pastors' and Missionaries' household goods and personal effects are always insured. Pastors' personal property housed in the church office is automatically insured without special endorsement on the policy.

The company writes Fire, Windstorm and Hail insurance, also Extended Coverage. Extended Coverage insurance is important since it gives protection for hazards for which the ordinary fire and windstorm policy does not provide.

All policy holders should make a careful appraisal of their buildings and make an inventory of the contents so as to get their insurance in line with present day values of replacement.

Policies are written on an annual basis for a term of five years. This plan simplifies the payment of premiums. No carrying charge on our policies.

The company operates under a perpetual charter and policies are non-assessable.

If it is worth having it is worth insuring. Do it today, tomorrow may be too late.

Inquiries addressed to the Home Office will be cheerfully answered.
